Description:

This is a one of a kind, beautifully restored convertible 1973 MGB. Now at 34 years old the '73 MGB has not out grown its original classic look and feel. This car has steadily been increasing in value over the last decade to make for a great investment. This vehicle runs and drives like a champion. The handling and power are fantastic. It has a clean title and has been treated like a baby. See below for details on work completed.

History:

The MGB was Britain's best-selling sports car model. It was launched in May 1962 to replace the MGA, and was produced until 22 October 1980. It was originally produced by the British Motor Corporation and sold under the MG marque. MGB production continued throughout restructuring of the British motor industry, and the parent company's transition from BMC to British Motor Holdings (in 1966) and to British Leyland Motor Corporation in 1968.
